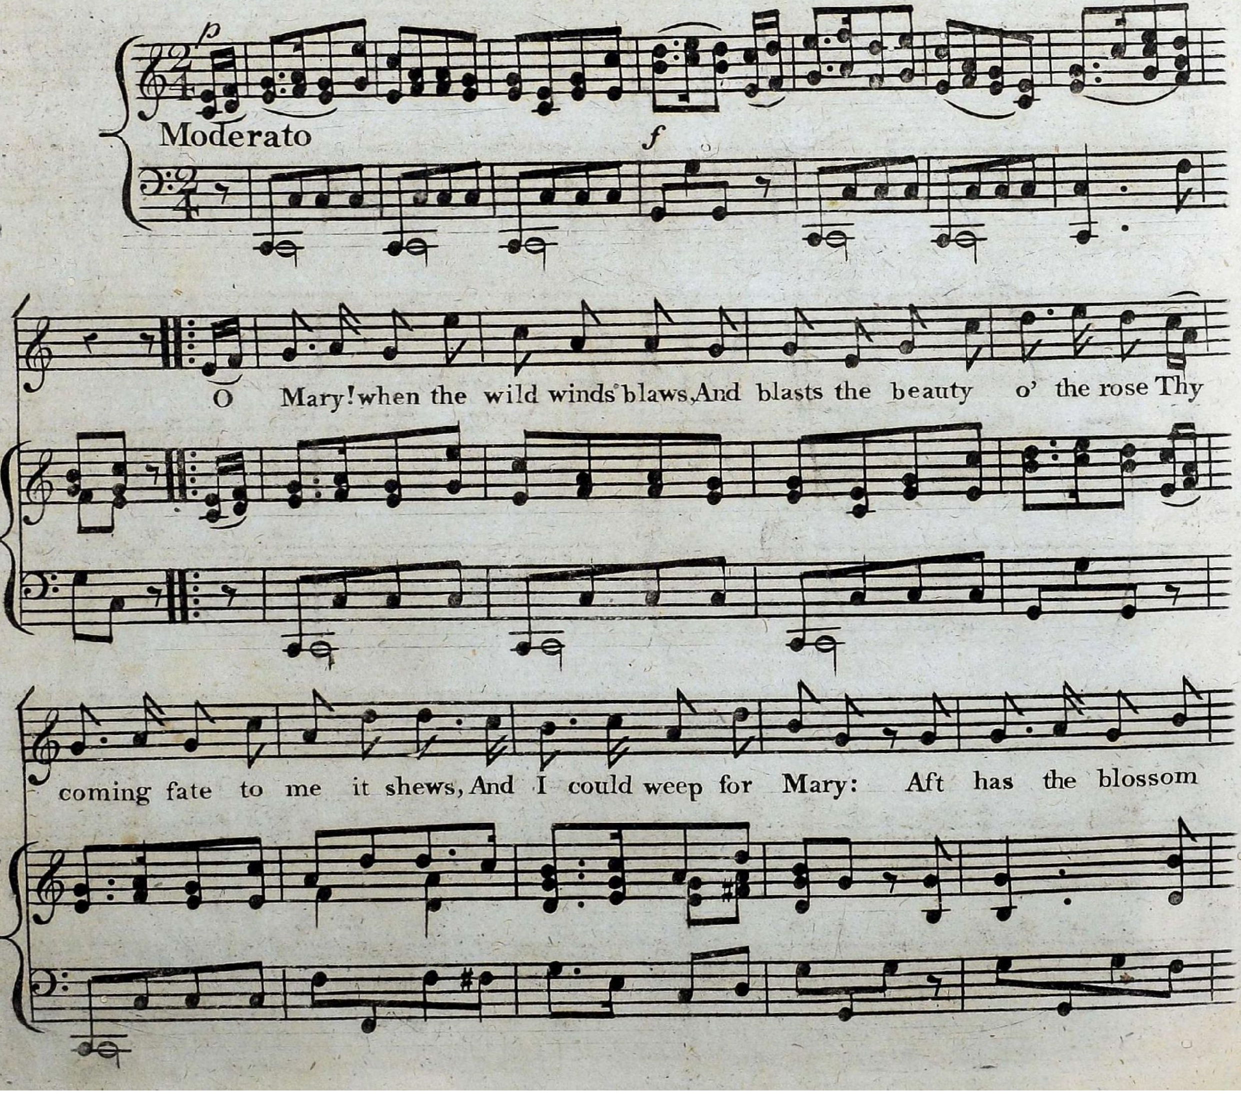
MARY
A favorite Scotch Song,
(Written by Mr. Anderson)

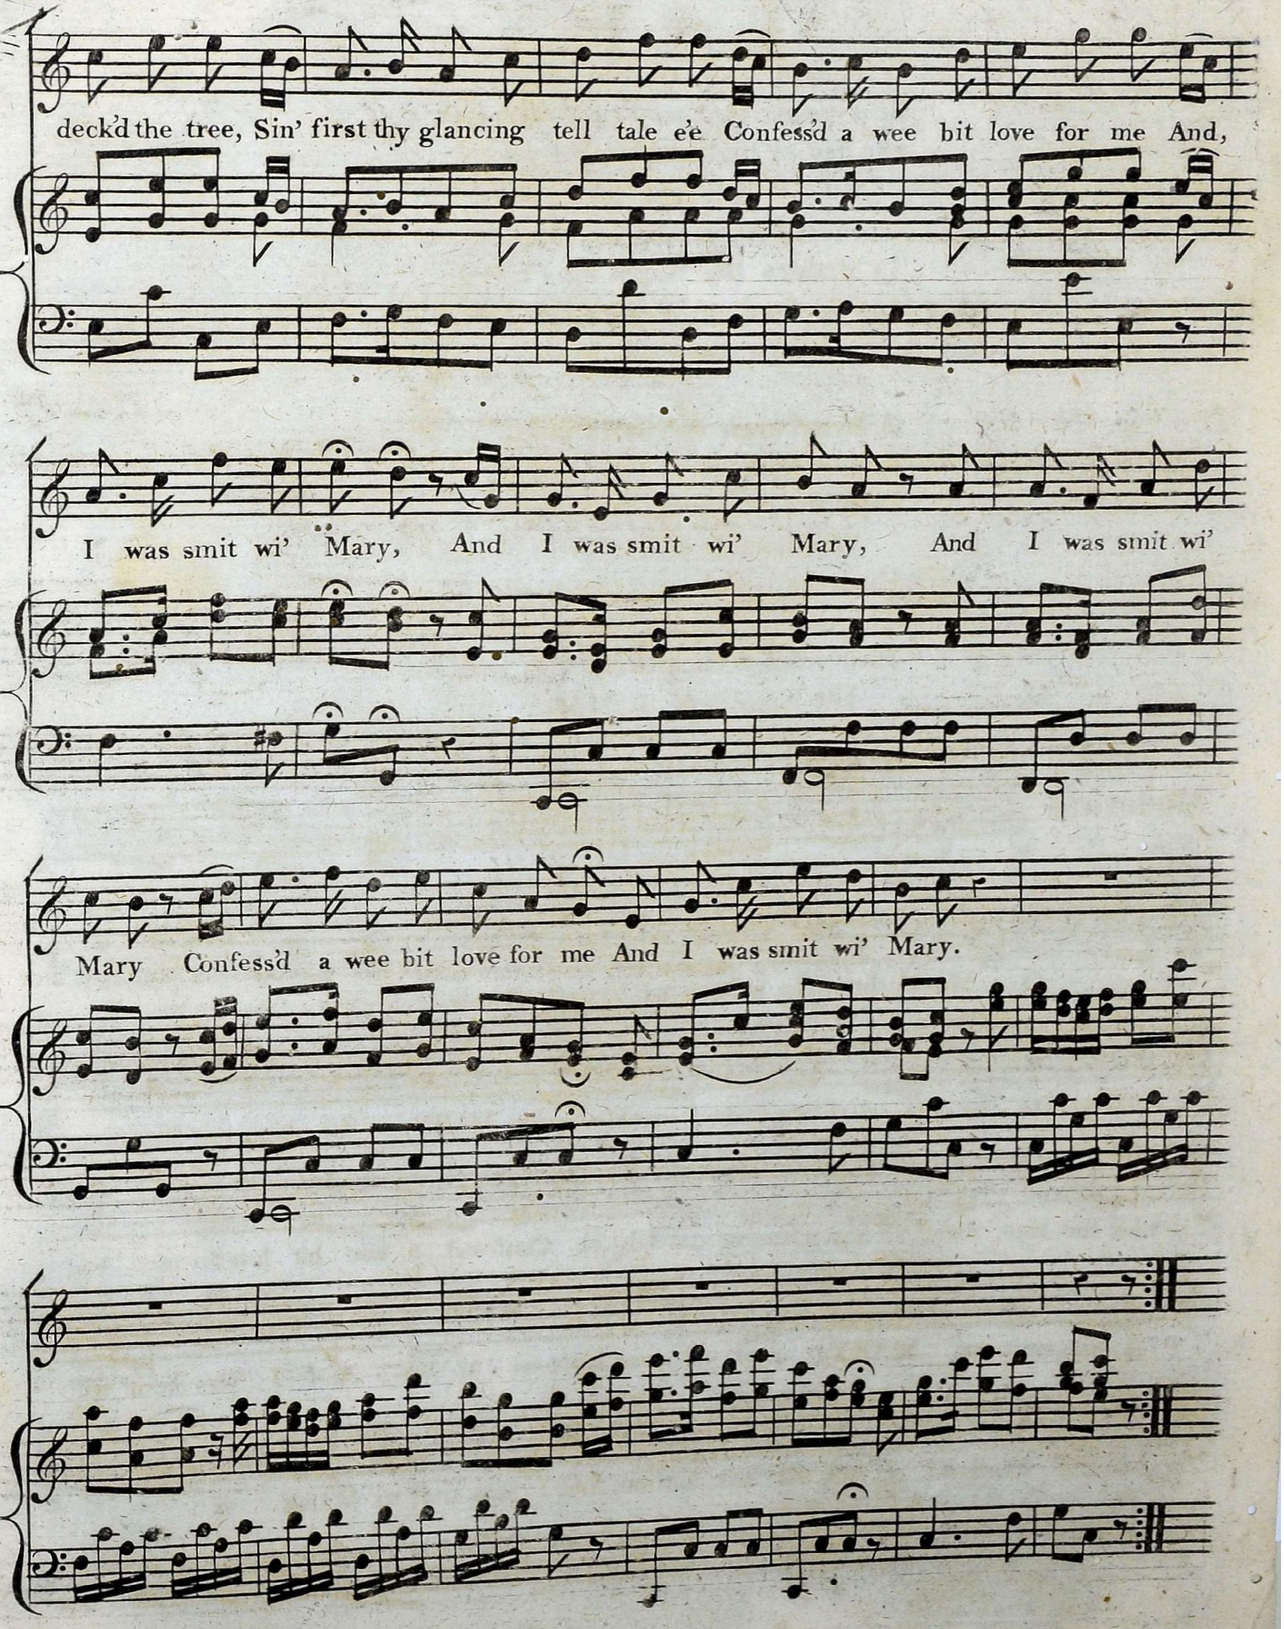
Composed by

THOMAS THOMPSON,
Organist Newcastle upon Tyne.

(The Words are Property.) Price 1s/

London Printed by Goulding & Co. 45 Pall Mall & 76 St. James's Street, & W. Wright Newcastle upon T.
Where may be had, Just Publish'd by the same Author
Mad Annie – The Death of Crazy Jane & Lucy.

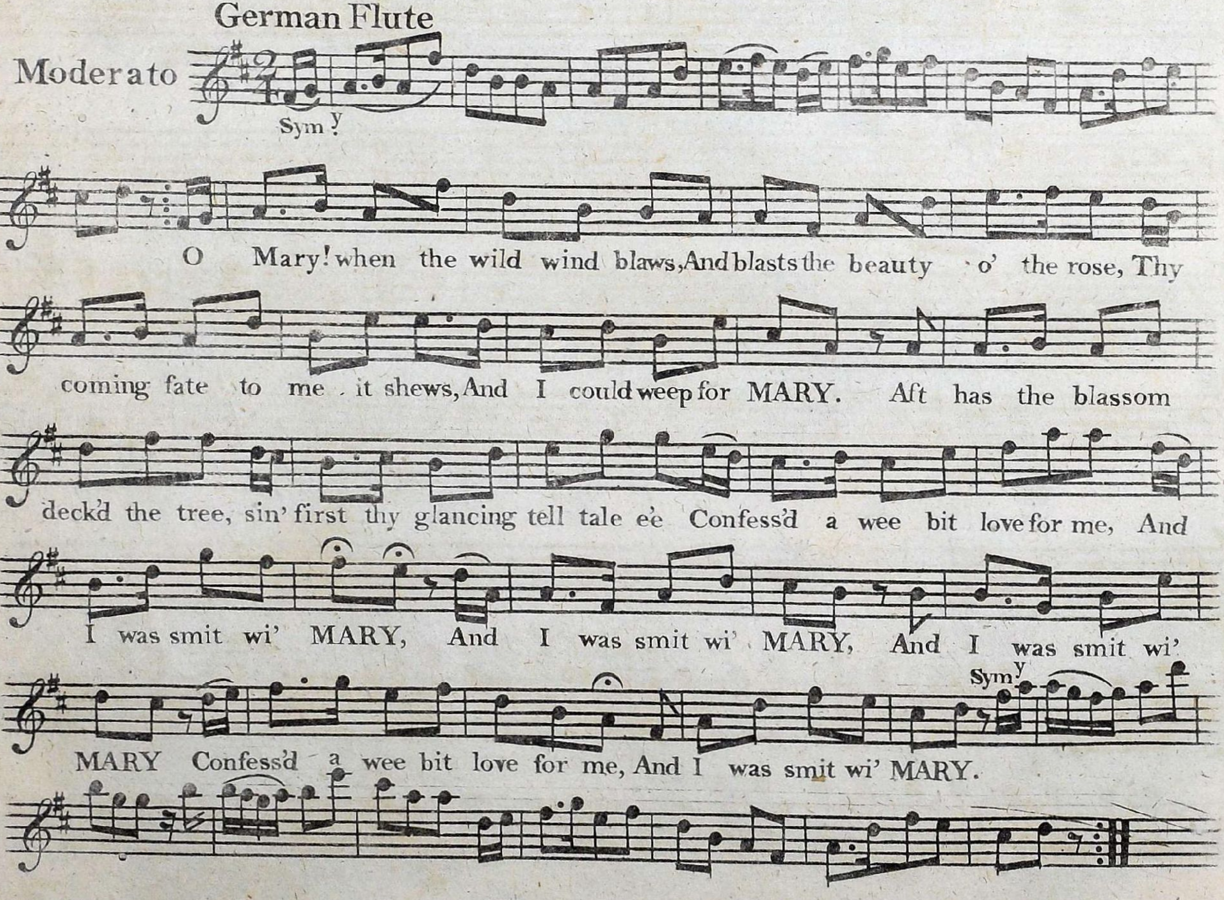




deck'd the tree, Sin' first thy glancing tell tale e'e Confess'd a wee bit love for me And,
I was smit wi' Mary, And I was smit wi' Mary, And I was smit wi'
Mary Confess'd a wee bit love for me And I was smit wi' Mary.

2

O, Mary! I hae lo'ed thee lang,
Still thou'rt the burthen o' my sang,
For day or night, whereer I gang,
I think o' nought but MARY.
When sleep seals up my wearied e'e,
In dreams thy Angel form I see;
And in fond raptures say to thee,
O! dinna leave me MARY!

3


O, Mary! when the warl's unkind,
And Poverty thraws me behind,
I aye can cheer my drooping mind
Wi' thoughts o' thee sweet MARY!
For were I sick, and like to die,
Thy witching smile would Comfort me;
Then come what will, my wish shall be
For happiness to MARY.